Dear Parents/Carers,

Thursday 4th March is World Book Day and as always Spring Common Academy will be handing out book tokens to each child that will allow them to purchase World Book Day books or get £1 off a purchase of a normal book in WH Smith's, Tesco's or Niche comics. Unfortunately there will be no class trips to select a book, but on Friday 5th March we will have a dress up day and the children can dress as their favourite film or book character or just come in their normal clothes. During the Friday TEAMS assembly children will then have the opportunity to show off their costumes.

There will also be a poster competition to let everyone know what makes reading such a good hobby to have. Reading is good to do because...

Competition entries to be in by Monday 8th March and winners announced at the next assembly on Friday 12th March.

Yours sincerely

Michele Lee
Literacy Manager
